Located: Thomas C. Lewis was called, his character examined and passed, and he was located at his own request.
The case of Edward F. Thwing was called, the committee reported as follows, viz:
The committee to whom was referred the case of Edward F. Thwing, respectfully present that they have collected what information they could in the case, and have come to the conclusion that the evidence is not sufficiently tangible for action by the Conference; in reference to his moral character, there are reasons which render it probable that he is unworthy to preach, but so far as your committee can learn there is not competent testimony to sustain them. There is evidence, however, showing that he is unacceptable to the people in the bounds of his work, and not useful in the ministry by reason of his own imprudence, and therefore offer the following resolution, viz:
Resolved: That Edward F. Thwing, because of imprudence, want of usefulness, and unacceptability with the people, receive a location.

Signed: D. O. Shattuck.

The resolution was read, ordered to be divided, and was adopted. A motion to amend by strking out "located" and insert "left without an appointment," was lost.

Curtis Case Concluded: The case of W. M. Curtis was called. The report and resolutions were then read and adopted as follows, viz:
Whereas, The record of the Quarterly Conference sent us with the memorial of Rev. Wm. M. Curtis has never been signed by the President of the Quarterly Conference; and whereas, he will not certify to it as a perfect representation of what actually transpired at the Quarterly Conference; and whereas, it appears that a considerable portion of the record was added after its adjournment, and it would be highly improper to act as a supervisory court upon an imperfect record, therefore,
Resolved, That we postpone the further consideration of said memorial until the said record is perfected and regularly certified to us.

Resolved, That the Secretary furnish Rev. W. M. Curtis with a copy of the above preamble and resolutions.

Thanks For Use Of Presbyterian Church: On motion of W. E. Doty, the thanks of the Conference be returned to the pastor and trustees of the First Presbyterian Church in Baton Rouge for their kind and Christian courtesy in tendering to this Conference the use of their church during its sittings in this place.
